News from the troops:
Hot…hot…hot was the way CDR Paulette described the day. Temperatures reached 127. It was considered a black flag day, meaning no physical activity. In those conditions, everyone is consuming large quantities of water and they are all continuing to look out for each other for any signs of dehydration.
A highlight of the day was a visit by CAPT Trueblood and Command Master Chief Wright to recognize both Petty Officer Rogers and CDR Lee on there recent advancement/promotions. As reported by Master Chief Wright, all dental personnel are well and their morale is up. In there free time, many are completing qualifications towards their Fleet Marine Force Warfare device.
